DGP J&K CONVENED A SERIES OF MEETINGS TO REVIEW WORKING IN VARIOUS WINGS OF POLICE ORGANIZATION

In an effort to revive the Jammu and Kashmir Police force and prop it up to face the challenges of present times, Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K has started to review working of various wings of police organization.

The first such review meeting was held at Security Headquarters Jammu on December 10, 2010 in which the DGP J&K took a detailed review of performance of security wing of J&K Police. Various vital security related issues were discussed threadbare during the meeting.

While addressing this State level Security review meeting, the DGP asked the participants to adhere to the guidelines laid down with regard to security mechanism. He said that the present scenario demands more vigilance of the security personnel as the miscreants have changed their strategy. "we have to remain more vigilant to strengthen the security system in the State with no room for complacency, the DGP added.

A view of review meeting of Security Wing held at Security Hqrs. J&K Jammu on December 10, 2010

He asked the officers to supervise security arrangements and deployments personally so that no loophole is left for any mischief.

The DGP stressed upon the officers to organize refresher courses for the personnel deployed on security duties as the training is necessary for refining of skills. He said that the personnel should be imparted training in handling the latest security gadgets, sophisticated weapons, explosives and frisking/checking implements.

After threadbare discussions, DGP sought suggestions from the officers present in the meeting for strengthening the security wing and asked them to come up with proposals in this regard through security headquarters. He assured the members that all requirements will be considered at PHQ level on priority.

Earlier, the Inspector General of Police J&K Security, Shri Farooq Ahmed IPS gave a detailed power point presentation on working of security wing across the State. He said that the security wing of J&K Police is looking after security arrangements for the visits of VVIPs, VIPs, categorized persons, airports and important installations in the State. He put up proposal regarding man power, transport, weaponry and gadgets before the meeting. The suggestions were discussed and DGP issued on spot instructions to the concerned to consider the proposal on priority and meet out the immediate requirements.

Senior Police Officers who attended the meeting include Inspectors General of Police, Smt. D.R. Doley, Sheikh Owais Ahmed, Deputy Inspectors General of Police, Shri Alok Puri IPS, P. R. Manhas IPS, and A. S. Bali IPS, Senior Superintendents and Superintendents of Police, Shri N. D.Wani, Shri Shakeel Ahmed Beig, Shri Syed Kifayat Hyder, Shri Amjad Parvaiz Mirza, Shri V.K. Bali, Shri M.A. Tak, Shri A.R.Lone, Shri A.R. Bhat, Shri Firdous Iqbal, Shri M.L. Mehra, Shri Bakar Samoon, Shri Manzoor Ahmed Dalal, Shri A. L. Dogra and other police officers.

A similar review meeting of traffic wing of Jammu and Kashmir Police was convened by DGP J&K on December 16, 2010. In a significant move to contain rising incidents of traffic violations, Jammu and Kashmir Traffic Police informed that they were in the process of making use of sophisticated technology including installation of CCTVs at vital locations in twin capital cities and major towns of state. The meeting was informed that 33 CCTV cameras will be installed in Jammu city while as process for installation of 13 CCTV is under way in Srinagar.

While addressing the meeting, the DGP asked the officers of the traffic wing to utilize the latest technology for regulating traffic and minimizing jamming on busy roads and coordinate with all other concerned agencies connected with the road management etc. to ensure smooth and jam free traffic movements on the roads. He disclosed that a Traffic Website dedicated exclusively to traffic issues would be launched soon and appealed people particularly youngsters to come forward with suggestions and feed back. DGP asked the officers to launch a massive awareness campaign across the state to make people aware about the traffic laws and regulations by organizing seminars, debates and discussions using all available mass communication means. He asked for regular screening of vehicles to check vehicle thefts and book traffic laws violators.

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K also chaired a review meeting of Crime Wing of the organization at Crime Headquarters J&K Jammu on December 18, 2010. While addressing the meeting the DGP disclosed that Jammu and Kashmir Police would soon launch a website with full details of crime related cases and progress made thereon vis-a-vis their detection and control. This would ensure greater transparency in the functioning of Crime Wing and largely facilitate in getting feedback about the crime which shall, in turn, help the Crime Wing in controlling the crime- the DGP added.

The DGP impressed upon the investigating officers to ensure prompt investigation of crime cases by following the standard rules, regulations and procedures so that every case is brought to its logical conclusion and challans presented in the courts without any delay.

The DGP asked the investigating agencies to optimally utilize the latest technology and scientific methods for prevention and investigation of crime as well as strict and regular monitoring thereon.

He said that investigating agencies should cooperate with each other and join hands in crime networking. He said that criminals are changing their strategy using latest methods for committing crime and the investigating agencies would have to acquaint its officers with effective techniques of investigation to counter such designs.

He also asked the officers to arrange special training courses for the investigating officers in latest techniques of investigation and Urdu reading and writing.

He said that cyber crime has posed a great challenge in the present times and investigators should be trained in the field of cyber crime investigation.

To check the activities of inter-state crime Syndicates, the intelligence agencies would have to gear up and keep the record updated, DGP added.
