DGP LAUNCHES TRAFFIC POLICE WEBSITE, FEEDBACK ACCOUNT.

Shri Kuldeep Khoda IPS DGP J&K launched website and face book account of J&K Traffic Police at Police Headquarters J&K Jammu on January 06, 2011.

The website www.jktrafficpolice.nic.in and the face book account, igtraffic-jk@yahoo.com of State Traffic Police have been exclusively dedicated to traffic related issues.

Giving details of newly launched Traffic Police website and face book account, DGP said that this will help largely in getting feedback and suggestions about traffic management from the road users and public at large. Appealing the people, particularly youth to come forward with their suggestions in this regard, the DGP added that these suggestions would help in bringing improvement in the traffic management.

The DGP impressed upon the concerned police officers to make people aware about website and the face book account through print and electronic media so that they make best use of this facility by sending their feedback and valuable suggestions. He asked them to update the website regularly. The DGP also stressed upon them to launch a massive state wide awareness campaign about traffic rules and regulations by organizing seminars, debates and discussions utilizing all mass communication means for achieving desired results.

Referring to utilization of latest technology to improve traffic management, the DGP said that in view of keen interest of Hon'ble Chief Minister J&K in streamlining the traffic department, electronic traffic signal system will be installed in two capital cities of Srinagar and Jammu within next few months and thereafter this signal system will be introduced in major towns and high ways of the State.
